

St Joseph's Catholic Junior School takes its data protection responsibility seriously and is open and transparent with how data is held and shared. Data is stored safely and securely and won't be released or shared with any third parties without consent (unless the law provides a legal basis that allows us to share information without consent).